His work has been published in multiple books and hundreds of scientific papers.

The COVID-19 pandemic only sharpened the public's ability to see Dr. del Rio's leadership first-hand, with countless Georgians and Americans turning to his expertise and guidance during such unsettling times. Dr. del Rio continues to excel at serving our country and our Georgia community. This year, he was selected as the new president of the Infectious Diseases Society of America, where he continues his commitment to promoting top-tier patient care, education, and research.

REMEMBERING FRANK BIRD GUMMEY III

● Mr. RUBIO. Mr. President, I pay tribute to the memory of Frank Bird Gummeey III, a former attorney for Daytona Beach, Volusia County, and New Smyrna Beach, whose career spanned 44 years and put him in the middle of many court battles throughout the State.

Frank Bird Gummeey III was born on April 12, 1945, to Frank Bird Gummeey II and his wife, Madeline. The only son of three children, Frank grew up in Gladwyn, PA, and was raised by his mother after his father passed away when he was just 4 years old.

In 1963, Frank graduated from Governor Dummer Academy in Byfield, MA, and enrolled at the University of the South, Sewanee, TN, graduating in 1967. He would later serve his alma mater as a trustee and regent. Frank then served in the Army for 2 years, spending time in Thailand before enrolling in law school at the University of Florida and received his J.D. in early 1973.

Frank's legal career began in Daytona Beach as an assistant city attorney, a position he held for 5 years until the city's attorney John Chew retired. He subsequently became the new city attorney and defended it throughout the 1980s and 1990s through many legal battles before leaving the city after 24 years. Frank then served as a deputy county attorney for Volusia County, where he argued a case involving the 2000 U.S. Presidential election. This brought him national recognition, though he declined press requests noting, "You don't try your cases in the press."

In 2004, Frank became New Smyrna Beach's city attorney as the city was involved in legal battles over its zoning laws for businesses. In 2017, Frank retired after a 44-year career of practicing law. After retirement, Frank embarked on cruises, traveled to Australia, New Zealand, and made time to meet friends for breakfast or lunch.

Throughout his legal career, Frank was involved with several legal organizations. He helped found the Florida Municipal Attorneys Association, served as president of the International Municipal Lawyers Association, and received the Charles S. Rhyne Lifetime Achievement in Municipal Law Award.

My wife Jeanette and I express our heartfelt condolences to Frank's wife Susan, their children Sarah and Frank, and their two grandchildren, Ezra and Madeline, on the loss of an important leader and great Floridian. May God bless his family during this time of sorrow.●
